TIPS FROM THE KENNEL

With Thanksgiving over, many of us are starting to pull out the Christmas decorations ... including the tree! But if you have cats, you might be dreading it. Cats love climbing trees, and even for well behaved kitties, a tree indoors full of sparkly goodness might prove to be too much of a temptation! So how do we keep Mittens out of the tree? Try a penny can. Take an ordinary soda can, put a few pennies in it, and have it near you. When you see your cat creeping toward the tree, throw the can near them. Make sure you don't actually hit your cat with the can, but it has to land in their proximity or it will not have the desired effect. Read more about the penny can at http://www.associatedcontent.com/article/93555/how_to_keep_your_cat_out_of_the_christmas_pg4.html?cat=53.

Call us at 535-3855. This tip brought to you by the friendly Atlantic Island Kennel staff, 535-3855.
